Chinese Memento for Chairman

MR. W. R. Thomas, Chairman of the V.A.S.F.A., has been presented with a valuable and intriguing token of regard from the Eastern Athletic Association, whose soccer team recently toured Australia.

It is a 9in. high replica, in hand-carved ivory, of an actual Chinese pagoda, called the Pagoda of the Bells, upon which are suspended hundreds of bells which sway and ring in the breeze.

HELLENIC MAKES THE GRADE

HELLENIC defeated Footscray City comfortably last week to obtain the necessary points and goal percentage to join George Cross in promotion to the First Division. The Greek club's final statistics were better than South Melbourne United's by a "short half-head," but the slim percentage margin was sufficient to sentence United to another year in the intermediate division.

Hellenic's win had a four-fold effect. In addition to its own promotion and United's disappointment, it removed Footscray City's last chance to avoid relegation, and relieved Sunshine City of any worry as to the outcome of its postponed game with Preston, to be played to-day.

This will be Hellenic's first elevation to the senior grade, and it is universally hoped that the team will live up to the promise shown in the latter half of this season.

Coincidentally, it appears certain that the vacancy left by Hellenic in the Second Division will be filled by another Greek club, Yarra Park.

POLONIA'S BID FOR CUP WIN

Form Points to Success

POLONIA defeated quadruple Dockerty Cup champion, Hakoah, 2-1 at Olympic Park last Saturday to enter the semi-finals, and its ever-improving form could indicate success in the finals.

There was not much to choose between the two teams in general field play last week, but Polonia seized its opportunities smartly, and Hakoah failed to do so.

It was a typically robust Cup tie in which not a single player afield shirked the issue, and no beg-pardons were given or taken throughout the game.

All of the remaining three semi-finalists had hard quarter-final matches. After being down 0-2 to J.U.S.T., Wilhelmina fought back to equalise at 2-all in the second half. J.U.S.T. found a little bit extra, however, and scored the last goal to win 3-2.

Moreland and Juventus officials report that their identical and seemingly clear-cut 2-0 wins, over Box Hill and Sunshine City respectively, were actually close and hard-won matches in which their players were happy to hear the full-time signal.

Analysis of Form.

Strange criticisms have been uttered, both in the Press and on the air, about Polonia's defence which cannot be substantiated on either visual or statistical form.

This ladder, based on the eight League matches of the second round, plus the last three Dockerty Cup rounds, reveals Polonia's excellent effort in the latter half of the season:

	P	W	D	L	F	A	P	%
POLONIA	11	9	1	1	29	13	19	223
MORELAND	11	7	2	2	23	16	16	175
J.U.S.T.	11	7	1	3	29	22	15	177
HAKOAH	11	6	2	3	29	19	14	153
JUVENTUS	11	5	3	3	23	13	13	177

Polonia's statistics were not helped, either, to the same extent as those of the other clubs by the luck of the draw in the earlier Cup rounds:

Polonia drew Yallourn (3-2) and Brighton (1-0); J.U.S.T. drew Footscray City (6-0) and Prahran (5-1); Hakoah drew Heidelberg (5-1) and Maccabi (4-1); Juventus drew Newborough United (3-0) and George Cross (6-2); and Moreland drew Melbourne (2-1) and Park Rangers (4-1).

An additional pointer for the Cup finals lies in the fact that Polonia's first sign of a change of form for the better was its draw with Moreland on June 1. Since then the team has improved out of sight, and has beaten both other semi-finalists, J.U.S.T. and Juventus.

ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN IN CUP SOCCER, BUT ON FORM IT LOOKS LIKE POLONIA IN 1967.

Scotland in Dashing Win Over Austria

SCOTLAND reached the World Cup semi-finals with a convincing 4-2 win over Austria in another thriller at Olympic Park last Sunday.

Austria's players, particularly in attack, appeared to possess more polish, and distributed the ball with more accuracy than their opponents, but they couldn't stem the consistent dash and vigour of the Scots.

Scotland's forwards co-operated in making opportunities for each other, and Bill Copeland scored three of his side's four goals, EAM Bell getting the other one.

The defence held firm, and both attack and defence received the usual abundant assistance from the non-stop Bob Wemyss.

Two Austrian players received injuries, Neuhold a skinned nose, and Pedzimas a possible chipped bone in the elbow.

This Was Hakoah's Goal

Steve Czauderna sailed high, but failed to sweep away Syd Thomas' long lob, and it landed in the goal-mouth between Pedzimas (left) and Capobus (right). Harburn (No. 4) is up with Czauderna. This was Hakoah's only goal in last week's Cup quarter-final.

THIRD DIVISION.

Who'll Get Last Flag?

... PAUL BORG.

WITH premierships, promotions, and relegations settled in all other senior Leagues, remaining interest, apart from the Cups, is focused on the top of the Third Division, where a tight three-cornered pennant battle looms between Yarra Park, Dandenong Rovers and Coburg.

If the last matches of these three leaders were all to be played against others of the division, premiership possibilities could be analysed with a fair chance for a successful forecast. But their remaining fixtures include matches against each other, and the equality of the three clubs makes the results of these games, very difficult to assess.

With three difficult games ahead — Frankston, Park Rangers and Dandenong — the draw and point which Yarra Park conceded to Maccabi last week could conceivably cost the Greek club the pennant.

If Dandenong wins its last three against Moorabbin, Coburg and Yarra Park, it could take the flag.

Coburg's winning run appears to have come too late. With only two rounds left, against F.N.D. and Dandenong, it seems that the most it can hope for is the runner-up berth.

Generous Help from These

THE Technical Schools' competition could possibly be a potent soccer-builder if more thought and attention was given to it by an appropriate authority set up for the task.

In the meantime, it struggles along with part-time effort and guidance, and the honorary services of a few altruistic soccer-lovers who give up their time to help the boys and referee their matches.

These are a few of the people to whom Mr. Len Young, the relevant sports masters, and the Association wish to convey a vote of thanks: Messrs. G. Harrison, J. Keogh, D. Chambers, A. Bast, J. Threlfall, C. Dawson, F. Ciach, C. Coralge, S. Newman, and A. McDonald.

Yarra Park Query Explained

UNDER the heading of GOOD TEAM, POOR MANAGEMENT? the following lines appeared in "Soccer News," issue of July 27:

"Yarra Park, outstanding leaders of the Third Division, were involved in a schemozzle last Saturday which ended in an abandoned Cup re-play with Maccabi, and which could indicate sloppy committee work.

"The kick-off was delayed until 3.15 p.m., but even at that time Yarra Park could field only seven men. Players continued to arrive at intervals, and eventually a full team played — but the damage had been done."

"Soccer News" is in receipt of a letter from Mr. C. Antoniadis, President of Yarra Park, which explains the absence that day of both players and committee-men, and the delays:

"Six players caught the flu late that week, and failed to notify the committee, whose members were out hunting substitute players.

"In addition, the van carrying clothing and equipment for the team was involved in an accident, delaying its arrival and the start of the match."

So the match eventually started with headaches, and finished the same way when the game was abandoned with a Yarra Park player involved in disciplinary trouble.

What a day for Yarra Park officials!

Australia Unlucky in World Cup

Several key players of Australia's World Cup team failed to appear at Olympic Park last Sunday, but the scratch team which was finally fielded put up a grand performance to hold Yugoslavia 1-1 until the Yugoslavs scored the winning goal just before full time.

This win took Yugoslavia into the semi-finals.

MESSAGE FROM BUDAPEST

MR. Jack Skolnik has received a letter* from the Ferencvarosi Torna Club containing these interesting sentiments:—

"Dear Sir,—On behalf of the Executive and the soccer football team of the Ferencvarosi Torna Club, we would like to express our gratitude for your kind assistance, and your excellent organisation of our Australian tour.

"We consider the tour a success, and we hope that your enormous effort in the interests of Australian football by having us visit your country will result in stronger relations with Australian sportsmen.

"We hope the team gave satisfaction to all concerned."—Yours faithfully,

(Signed) Adolf Nadas, Pres.
Arpad Csanadi, Sec.

Many Enquiries for Tours

PUBLICITY abroad, following upon this year's tours of Australia by visiting teams, has resulted in the receipt of official enquiries for similar visits from organisations in Brazil, Turkey, Germany, Spain, Israel, Poland and Italy.

More will no doubt come to hand, and careful scrutiny and lengthy negotiations will precede final decisions.

State Team for Adelaide

THE Soccer Council has confirmed that the Victorian State team will visit Adelaide to play South Australia in matches on Saturday, October 12, and Monday, October 14, the latter date being a holiday in that State.

Mr. Kurt Defris was appointed Manager of the team, and Mr. Sam Horrobin, Assistant Manager.

Hellenic's Narrow Percentage Win

WHICHEVER way it is figured, Hellenic's percentage win over South Melbourne United was, a narrow one.

Calculating the percentage of goals "for" to the total of goals "for and against," and comparing the results of the two teams thus obtained, Hellenic's superiority works out at less than 1 per cent.

Using the more conventional method of computing in percentages, the ratio of "goals for" over "goals against," Hellenic scored 107 per cent., United 100 per cent.

To the Editor

DEAR Sir,—Here's a suggestion for the lay-out of "Soccer News." Would it be possible for the "Results" and "Fixtures" page to be placed opposite "How They Stand"? This would make comparisons, forecasts, and post-mortems much easier and less irritating.—Yours, etc.,

A. P. PRIOR.
Hon. Secretary,
Frankston Soccer Club.

[An excellent suggestion. A little too late for this year, but a "MUST" for 1958.—Ed.]

Large Crowd at George Cross Ball

A CROWD of nearly 1000 people packed the North Melbourne Town Hall last Saturday night for the George Cross National festival, which was naturally converted into a George Cross Soccer Club celebration.

Association identities present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kerr, Mr. J. Oliphant, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Buckner, Mr. J. Demetrios, Secretary of Hellenic, which also won promotion last week, shared the celebratory atmosphere.

Mr. Thomas congratulated both George Cross and Hellenic on their successes, and presented trophies and medals to the Maltese players.

Up Polonia!

Polonia's pivot, Pedzimaz, sails high over Peterson and Harburn in defence of his goal in last week's hard-fought Cup tie.

BALLARAT VERY ACTIVE

Box Hill's Happy Visit

THE Ballarat Soccer Association entertained a team from Box Hill last Sunday, and the Melbourne visitors defeated a Selected Eleven, 7-6.

Representatives of both hosts and visitors have contacted "Soccer News" and offered glowing reports on what must have been a very pleasant outing.

Proceeds from the event will go to the Wendouree Youth Club.

Box Hill will probably accept an invitation for another visit to the inland city as the Ballarat Association's guests at its annual dance on Friday, September 27, with a match to follow on Saturday, the 28th.

Ballarat is also hoping to complete arrangements for a visit by Hakoah in October.

Negotiations are proceeding with a view to bringing about the affiliation of Bendigo and Ararat with the Ballarat Association.

One of the Ballarat Association's eight clubs, Kosciusko, was banned from the League after the hearing of charges that its supporters allegedly attacked players of the local Wilhelmina Soccer Club during a match.

Dockerty Cup semi-finalists had better not concede draws in their ties. No extra time is played in semi-finals, and because of the limited use of Olympic Park and other venues, re-plays would probably be ordered for the next day, a fearsome prospect after a hard Cup tie.

World Cup Semi Tomorrow

SCOTLAND meets Yugoslavia in the first World Cup semi-final tomorrow at Olympic Park in what promises to be another highlight of the Sunday competition.

The re-play of the drawn Poland-Latvia match will precede the semi-final. England has been drawn to play the winner of the re-play in the second semi-final on a date to be announced.

BREVITIES...

WEDDING bells have rung for Alec Glennie, Slavia wing-half, and Laurie Stott, Moreland pivot. Alec took the plunge a fortnight ago, and Laurie promised to obey last Saturday.

George Cross Best and Fairest trophies went to Frank D'Amato (Seniors) and J. Conti (Reserves). Chairman of the Association, Mr. W. R. Thomas made the presentations last Saturday night.

Mention of George Cross reminds us that Victor Calleja, 14-year-old son of the Maltese club's former Secretary, is captain of his football team at St. Kilda Christian Brothers' College. An Australian Rules team!

When several players failed to turn up to take their place in the line-up for Australia last Sunday, Johnny McIvor was pressed into service as a goalkeeper. Did a mighty good job, too.

Six goals were scored in the World Cup thriller last Sunday, four by Scotland and two by Austria. Strangely enough, all six were scored by Slavia forward — Copeland (3), Bell, Majer and Gottschlich.

Microphoning his congratulations to George Cross at the "do" at the North Melbourne Town Hall last Saturday night, John Oliphant wound up with this: "You got rid of the Turks, you got rid of Napoleon, and now you've gotten rid of the Second Division."

Nice gesture after the Scotland-Austria match. Following Austria's penalty kick which rebounded from the post, was played again and goalied, Scottish players "picked" Referee Hecht for allowing the score to stand. After the Scots' keeper admitted getting his hand to the ball before it hit the post, Tom Jack acted for his team in apologising to the ref.

J.U.S.T.'s celebratory whind-ding, which they are referring to as the "Premiers' Blue Night," kicks off at 8 p.m. next Saturday night at the Prahran Town Hall. Should be quite a night, and we suspect that they'll be referring to the next day for quite a while at the "Premiers' Blue Sunday."

Injuries had a lot to do with the disappointing finish by St. Albans, who were expected to give the premiership of their Metropolitan League a shake this year. Centre-forward Bormann went out with a broken leg, right-half Skidmore had a shoulder broken, and full-backs Schiede and Fanella sustained serious foot injuries. Add to that the team's devastation by flu, and you have the reason why only eight players took the field against flag-winner, I.C.I.
